This session was attended by students and faculty members of MIET. The event was coordinated by Dr. Dharam Singh and Dr. Pragati Sinha and the anchor was Kritika Ojha. Around 60 students attended the session. The session was encouraging and inspiring for the students.

Conclusion: This session likely led to a heightened awareness among students regarding the threats posed by terrorism and the importance of vigilance in countering it. Students likely gained a better understanding of the root causes of terrorism, such as social, political, economic, and ideological factors. Session likely recognized their role as active participants in preventing terrorism by promoting peace, tolerance, and inclusivity in their communities.

Outcome

1. The students have gained a deeper understanding of the threat of terrorism and its implications for society, both nationally and globally.
2. The session inspires students to initiate their own anti-terrorism initiatives, such as awareness campaigns, volunteer projects, or advocacy efforts.
3. Participants develop a stronger emotional connection to the victims of terrorism, motivating them to take action against extremism.
4. Discussions during the session promote critical thinking and analysis of the root causes of terrorism and effective countermeasures.
