Brief Report	Value and Ethics Club of Mangalmay Institute of Engineering and Technology, Greater Noida has celebrated "Buddha Jayanti or Buddha Purnima" on May 23, 2024, with the purpose of encouraging cultural understanding, exchanging inspirational messages, and remembering Buddha's life. Dr. Ishwar Singh was the guest speaker for the event. The session began with a peaceful minute of silent prayer, setting the tone for the spiritual talk that was to follow. Mr. Prabhat Kumar, Assistant Professor from the Department of Applied Sciences Humanities, addressed the Welcome Address and cordially welcomed the distinguished attendees, expressing gratitude for their attendance. He stated that Buddha is important to India's worldview, and Bharat and Buddha are inseparable. Buddha's teachings and ideas are unique among other Indian spiritual and philosophical traditions due to their interplay of individualism and collectivism. As per Dr. Ishwar Buddhist tradition has three important events in Buddha's life happened on Buddha Purnima: he was born, he attained enlightenment, and he died, entering Parnirvana. Dr. Ishwar Singh said on Buddha Purnima, devotees start the day by cleaning their homes, taking a bath, and sprinkling Gangajal throughout the house. They also light a candle and decorate their homes with flowers, draw a swastika with Haldi, roli, or kumkum in front of the front door, and light a candle and pour milk near the Bodhi Tree. People contribute food and clothing to those in need. Dr. Ishwar Singh spent the delving into the beginnings of Buddhism, expounding its concepts and practices, and demonstrating how Buddhism may serve as a guiding light for perspectives on life and wellbeing. He stressed the importance of Vipassana meditation in today fast-paced environment, noting its ability to build attention and inner calm. Following the insightful presentation, a lively question-and-answer
