expertise in the field.

Speaker captivated the audience with her profound knowledge and charismatic presentation style. She began the session by discussing the significance of personality development and how it can influence one's career and personal growth.

She was aptly dressed for the theme of the session which gathered her appreciation and influenced the young participants to prioritise the need and impact of having a developed and groomed personality.

The speaker provided detailed guidelines on personal hygiene, including skincare, hair care, and oral hygiene which influenced the students. Further, Demonstrations were also given on proper grooming techniques, such as shaving, hair trimming, and nail care. Speaker also shared the importance of using quality grooming products and maintaining a consistent grooming routine. Through a series of interactive activities, she encouraged students to reflect on their strengths and areas for improvement.

Ms. Bakshi skilfully engaged the students with real-life examples, making the session not only educational but also highly relatable. Her approach to grooming went beyond mere physical appearance; she emphasized the importance of developing a positive mindset, effective communication skills, and emotional intelligence. The interactive sessions allowed students to actively participate, ask questions, and receive personalized advice from the speaker.

Her ability to connect with the audience and address their queries was highly appreciated, and her engaging delivery style earned high praise from all attendees.

Overall, the session looked well planned and was supported by the
