Report
Academic Year	2023 – 2024
Name of Activity	World Aids Day
Date of Activity	01/12/2023
Organized by	Fitness Club, Mangalmay Institute of Engineering and Technology, Greater Noida
Resource Person	Prof. (Dr.) Sanjay Pachauri, MIMT
Beneficiary	26 Students, 10 Faculty
Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To Increase public understanding of HIV/AIDS, its transmission, prevention, and treatment. Educate communities to dispel myths and reduce stigma associated with the virus.</li> <li>• To demonstrate support for individuals living with HIV/AIDS and their families. Encourage empathy, compassion, and non-discriminatory attitudes towards those affected by the virus.</li> <li>• To advocate for safe practices, such as condom use and regular testing, to prevent the spread of HIV. Encourage open conversations about sexual health and responsible behaviour.</li> <li>• To pay tribute to those who have lost their lives to AIDS-related illnesses. Reflect on the impact of HIV/AIDS on communities worldwide and acknowledge the progress made in the fight against the virus.</li> </ul>
Brief Report	Prof. (Dr.) Sanjay Pachauri Addressed the audiences. He Says that World AIDS Day, observed annually on December 1st. serves as a global platform to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS, commemorate those affected, and advocate for improved prevention, treatment, and support services. Across various media platforms, informative materials, including posters, videos, and social media content, were shared to educate the public on the importance of knowing one's HIV status, transmission modes, and preventive measures. The overarching goal was to dispel myths and reduce the stigma associated with the virus. During his addressing he mention that One of the focal points of this year's World AIDS Day was the promotion of voluntary HIV testing and counseling. Mobile testing units were deployed in various communities, offering accessible and confidential testing services. World AIDS Day served as a catalyst for policy advocacy, urging governments and stakeholders to prioritize HIV/AIDS-related issues. Advocacy efforts focused on ensuring universal access to treatment, prevention programs, and support services.
Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increased Awareness: Through awareness campaigns, events, and educational initiatives, World AIDS Day can lead to increased</li> </ul> knowledge about HIV/AIDS, its transmission, prevention, and treatment options.

- Reduced Stigma: Celebrating World AIDS Day helps challenge and reduce the stigma and discrimination associated with HIV/AIDS. By fostering empathy and understanding, individuals may be more likely to offer support to those living with the virus.
- Policy Advocacy: The day serves as a platform for advocacy, prompting discussions about policy changes and improvements in healthcare systems to ensure better access to treatment, prevention, and support services.
